

U.S. LEADERSHIP ON THE INTERNATIONAL SUPERHIGHWAY

Benefits and Accomplishments from U.S. Participation in the World Road Association 2016 – 2019 Cycle

Thursday, December 10, 2020

11:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. ET / 8:30 a.m. - 10:00 a.m. PT

Join us to hear from Federal Highway Administration (FHWA) and American Association of State Highway and Transportation Officials (AASHTO) leadership on the value and benefits of participation in the World Road Association 2016-2019 cycle. A selection of U.S. delegates will also showcase key accomplishments from the cycle, highlight relevance to the U.S. transportation community, explore future trends, and share opportunities for the transportation community on how to get involved.

Remarks by:

Tom Everett

Executive Director, FHWA

Jim Tymon

Executive Director, AASHTO

Patrick Malléjacq

Secretary General, PIARC
(World Road Association)

Neil Pedersen

Executive Director, Transportation
Research Board

Presentations and Live Panel Q&A by:

Dr. John Milton

State Safety Engineer, Washington Department of Transportation

Dr. Bijan Khaleghi

State Bridge Design Engineer, Washington
Department of Transportation

Dr. Joseph Hartmann

Director, Office of Bridges and Structures, FHWA

Tiffany Julien

Transportation Specialist, FHWA

Moderated by:

Leslie Wright

Director, Office of International Programs,
FHWA

Why should I participate?

This webinar will provide information to U.S. transportation industry participants across all organizational levels and disciplines:

- Understand of the benefits and value of participation in the World Road Association (WRA)
- Understand how the U.S. delegates disseminate information to the industry
- Learn about key accomplishments of the 2016-2019 WRA cycle and relevance to the U.S. highway transportation community
- Identify the future trends and opportunities for the transportation community on how to get involved

How do I participate? REGISTER TODAY

Questions? Contact MaryAnn.Carpenter@dot.gov

The webinar is free of charge but requires online advance registration. Webinar attendees are eligible to receive professional development credits for participation.